

Buffalo Criminal Law Review

VOLUME 3 • 1999 • NUMBER 1

SYMPOSIUM Victims and the Criminal Law: American and German Perspectives

- 1 From the Editors
- 3 The Victim in American Penal Law: A Systematic Overview
Markus Dirk Dubber
- 33 The Role of the Victim Within the Criminal Justice
System: A Three-Tiered Concept
Bernd Schünemann
- 51 The Place of Victims in the Theory of Retribution
George P. Fletcher
- 65 Victims and Retribution: A Reply to Professor
Fletcher
Michael Moore
- 91 The Functionalization of the Victim in the Criminal Justice System
Peter-Alexis Albrecht
- 109 The Resurrection of the Victim in Penal Theory
Cornelius Prittwitz
- 131 Victims as Cost Bearers
Richard Adelstein
- 175 Distribution of Punishment: The Role of a Victim's Perspective
Tatjana Hörnle
- 211 Mediation as a Basic Element of Crime Control:
Theoretical and Empirical Comments
Dieter Rössner
- 235 Restitution and Offender-Victim Arrangement in German Criminal Law: Development and Theoretical Implications
Detlev Frehsee
- 261 Robbing the Rich to Feed the Poor?
Jennifer Gerarda Brown
- 293 Sexuality and Crime: The Victims of Sexual Offenses
Wilfried Bottke