

Buffalo Criminal Law Review

VOLUME 3 • 2000 • NUMBER 2

FORUM ON THE LAW OF RAPE

- 317 Redefining Rape
David P. Bryden
- 513 Rape Law Reform at the Millennium: Remarks on Professor Bryden's Non-Millennial Approach
Vivian Berger
- 527 Realism About Rape Law: A Comment on
"Redefining Rape"
George C. Thomas III
- 557 What Is Consent? And Is It Important?
Alan Wertheimer
- 585 Reason and Guesswork in the Definition of Rape
David P. Bryden

ARTICLES

- 593 A Study in "Actuarial Justice": Sex Offender
Classification Practice and Procedure
Wayne A. Logan
- 639 Penal Law and Sexuality: Recent Reforms in German
Criminal Law
Tatjana Hörnle
- 687 Enlightened Criminal Policy or the Struggle Against Evil
Klaus Lüderssen
- 701 The Proposed Duty to Inquire as Affected by Recent Criminal Law Decisions in the United States Supreme Court
Richard G. Singer

REVIEW ESSAYS

- 755 Meaning and Motive in the Law of Homicide
Guyora Binder
- 775 Moral Judgment: Does the Abuse Excuse Threaten
Our Legal System?
Alan M. Dershowitz
- 785 The Search for the Whole Truth About American and European Criminal Justice
Richard S. Frase